As a member of the Makana Tribe, you join a special community of recurring donors focused on the sustainability of our mission.

Your monthly gift ensures Hang Tough Hero Families receive services they need to provide a sense of normalcy as well as build a community to provide a refuge and outlet that supports the entire family. All the funds stay local and are invested in programs that assist Hero Families right here in Tallahassee.

I would like to send in checks:

The name Makana in Hawaiian means "Gift". Makana is also an iconic mountain on the island of Kauai. Tribe in "Surfer Lingo" means a tight-knit family.

Together, our tight-knit family of monthly givers will help us #MoveMountainsTogether as we support local families.

Thank you for your support!

Checks can be mailed to:
